NOTICE

Sub: General Election of Karnataka State 2013 – Code of Conduct –
Reg.

Ref: Directives dated 01.04.2013 of Dist. Electoral Officer.

As the Code of conduct in Karnataka State 2013 is in force in connection with the General Election, the Election Commissioner in the video conference has directed clear instructions that are in force under Code of conduct, any kind of Banners, buntings, cutouts etc. should not be displayed in public places.

However, during April, 2013 trade unions in connection with their elections have made publicity on the main roads.

Thus the Election Commission's Code of Conduct of Karnataka State has been violated.

Hence, such Banners, buntings, cutouts etc should be removed immediately.
